Pastor's Page

By Pastor Scott Peterson scott@mlutheran.com

Dear Disciples of the Risen Messiah,

MY 2012 SABBATICAL is finally, officially over. I had two and a half months away this summer. Then, the final two weeks were October 10-20 in Germany helping lead a group of pilgrims on a tour of Martin Luther historical sites, plus we had a few days both in Berlin and Munich. Thank you, Messiah Lutheran Church. I believe this Sabbatical will help me to better serve in the days ahead. Below are some personal reflections which I blogged while traveling. (The complete blog is on the MLC website.) This is motivated by my concern for the people and the Church in Germany.

THE GERMAN PEOPLE: The evidence of their strong work ethic and corporate determination is everywhere. Life is ordered. When visitors unknowingly step outside of that order, it is not silently tolerated. That said, nearly everyone I met in Germany was helpful and courteous. A far lower percentage appeared happy. In my work I am routinely together with people animated by an abiding joy that flows from their Christian faith. (This joy is not to be confused with happiness for it goes much deeper and is not extinguished even in times of grief and tragedy.) Sadly, I sensed precious little faith or joy in Germany.

THE CHURCH buildings were grand. Yet, many function today primarily as museums and many are being converted into mosques for Islamic worship. I wonder if the crimes of Germany in the last century have created a national sense of shame which has stolen the soul of this people. Imagine a century where your country has been on a disastrous trek beginning with World War I, followed by the rise of Adolf Hitler leading to World War II including the holocaust, and that followed by a divided nation with the East under the burden of Communist rule for 45 years. We cannot imagine.

TO PUT THIS IN THEOLOGICAL TERMS: This is a people who have been slain by the Law, but not heard the Gospel/good news that brings forgiveness, new life, and the hope that will not disappoint. Germany is a secular society today. Christianity is marginalized across Europe. The U.S. seems bent on catching up as America gets more and more secularized. Is that where we want to go? I hope not.

SO WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE? Christianity was brought to North America by Europeans. As Lutherans we are indebted especially to Germans for our heritage that focuses on God's gracious grasp on us. Much of the spread of Christianity in Africa during the last 150 years grew from the efforts of American missionaries. I believe it is time to reverse the direction of that flow. That is: I believe America needs missionaries from Africa today, and Europe needs missionaries from America. My last day in Germany included visiting with a Pastor and parishioner from a Lutheran church in the Netherlands. We are planning to begin building a relationship by regular communication. As Christians in America we have much to learn about living faithfully in a society that is working to push us to the fringes. And, I hope that we can share gifts God has entrusted to us to pass on this life-giving faith to a new generation of European Christians.

TRAVEL is a great teacher. LIFE is a journey. FAITH is a journey. I expect you have heard those slogans before. But, I commend them anew to you. And, I encourage each of us to have the sense of adventure to go somewhere new in our journeys of faith. That can be done whether we are at home or half-way around the world because our Lord and his mission for us is everywhere. (See Matthew 28.)

NEXT YEAR JERUSALEM! Shalom.

Pastor Scott Peterson

Sunday School Spotlight

By Heather Osterdorff

This month's Sunday school spotlight features the Pre-K/Kindergarten class:

My name is Rachael Wier. I teach Pre-K and Kindergarten and have a total of 5 lovely students in my class: Gabriel, Samantha, Charlie, Hannah, and Emma. In class we usually start with a coloring activity followed by the Bible story for the day and a craft activity. My kids favorite part of class is playing outside (or play dough if it's raining or cold) followed by snack time. I really enjoy all of my kids and watching them learn whatever I can teach them!

Stewardship Thought.....e-lernt - News from Luther Seminary

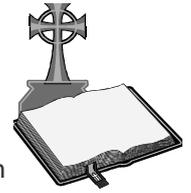

In his book "Faithful Finances 101", Gary Moore quotes Peggy Noonan, editorial board member of the Wall Street Journal, on faith and money:

"The other day I met with a Chinese dissident who has served time in jail, and whose husband is in jail in Beijing. I asked her if the longing for democratic principles that has swept the generation of Tiananmen Square has been accompanied by a rise in religious feeling--a new interest in Buddhism, Taoism, Christianity. She thought for a moment and looked at me. 'Among the young, I would say our religion is money,' she said. I nodded and said, 'Oh, that's our religion too.'"

Gary Moore goes on to make the awkward point that some of America's worst turn-of-the-millennium corporate scandals were perpetrated by devoted churchgoers, even Sunday school teachers and ministry board members. At all levels of society--personal, familial, congregational and professional--we are having trouble marrying the realities of faith and finances.

As I have reflected on this challenge as it regards the mission of the church, one image and symbol in particular brings together the dynamics of mission and stewardship in a fundamental way--the Lord's Supper. It's no wonder that the early Christians gathered daily around table fellowship and the breaking of bread. It's around the table that our physical, emotional and spiritual needs are met. It is to the altar that we bring our gifts, signs of our faithful response to God's love in Christ. And it is at the altar that God's gifts are blessed, broken and shared with not only the people of God, but the whole world. It's at the altar that the church practices both stewardship and mission.

Come Lord Jesus, be our guest and let these gifts to us--and the world--be blessed.

Meet the Mooneyham Family

We are the Mooneyham Family... Melani, Ty (4 years old), and Abby (12 years old). In 2003 I became a member of Messiah Lutheran Church after relocating to Alabama from North Carolina to be nearer to my family; Ed & Georgann Trexler and my brother, Joshua.

Up until June 2011, I utilized my administrative skills in various positions within D&Y (medical staffing/locum tenens company) until transitioning into the government contracting world. As I continue to grow professionally in an ever-changing world, I am thankful for my mentors, my most treasured being my Dad. Thank you Sir!

In September 2008, God blessed me beyond anything I would have ever imagined.... He gave me Ty. I say it a lot as it is true--God knew exactly what He was doing when He gave me Ty. Ty is a happy little boy, with an incredible imagination. He is creative, kind, funny and he teaches me new things every day. Ty has attended Covenant Classical School since he was three months old and the encouragement they provide him is a Blessing.

I am sure by now you are curious about Abby. Well, almost a year before God gave me Ty He brought Abby into my life. She is a Great Pyrenees, born on New Year's Day 2000 and is our "Princess!"

As the new Greeter Coordinator I am thankful to all whom are willing to give of their time to greet on Sundays, thank you! If you are interested in greeting, please let me know!

We thank GG and Pap for always supporting us but mostly for loving us unconditionally. We appreciate you both and love you with all our hearts! To our family at Messiah, we thank you and appreciate your prayers!

Faith - keep it and always Trust in the Lord, He has your journey planned and shall make it clear to you in His time.

Blessings Always,
Melani, Ty & Abby
